For the week of June 7- June 13

Thought of the week :

"If you have a task to perform and are vitally interested in it, excited and challenged by it, then you will exert maximum energy. But in the excitement, the pain of fatigue dissipates, and the exuberance of what you hope to achieve overcomes the weariness."
---Jimmy Carter---

"I DIG McMinnville!" Customer Service Seminar

Chances are, this scenario has happened many times in the course of our daily business, and the way it is handled has everything to do with the way visitors view and spend time and money in our area.

As business owners, we want and need visitors/customers to come to McMinnville. We need them to spend as much time and money in our town as they possibly can. And we need to encourage them to do so.

This seminar is designed for business owners, front-line workers, and anyone who meets and greets the public. Bring your whole staff and in a short two hours, you all will get a great overview of places to eat, sleep, shop, and play and how to best share this information with our customers.

Let's all learn how to be cheerleaders for our great hometown and see how we can grow together.

1 God, 1 Community, 1 Mission = A UNITY PROJECT

May 31- June 18, 2010 ,over 400 volunteers will converge on the city of McMinnville to build two church facilities (Bridges of Hope Fellowship and the Seventh Day Adventist Church) that will affect three congregations, as the Lutheran Church meets at the SDA Church on Sundays. These volunteers will come from several different states and pay their own way to be involved in A UNITY PROJECT. This is going to be BIG for the McMinnville and Warren County, Tennessee communities. Crews will work from daylight to dark building these structures that will very soon become 'lighthouses of hope.' It is our desire that this project will set the pace for future unity projects that will seek to transform and impact entire communities. for the greater good.
